John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

Coming before our Loving God in Prayer

Breaking through the boundaries Carolyn Wilkins

Leader: We confess we have created boundaries to set us apart from your world and even from each other.

People: We have determined that some creatures are not as wonderful, some people not as worthy, some souls not as important.

Leader: We are like the apostle Peter, intent on our prayers and content that they remain private. Forgive us. Turn us around.

People: Break in on our reverie, burst through the gates we have created, knock down the walls we cherish, let your truth descend on us from heaven that we may see there is no unclean thing, that whatever and whoever You have created is yours!

Unison: May we be filled with your Spirit, ready to go where You lead us, ready to create the true body of Christ, drawn from all nations and all people into one fellowship of love and service. These things we pray, humbly recognizing You as the author and perfecter of our lives.

Gems for Daily Living – Wednesday Night Bible Study

God designed us to be social creatures. The key concept of life is relationships. Jesus reminds us there is no greater commandment than loving God wholeheartedly, and loving our neighbor as our self.

The book of Proverbs gives us timeless wisdom on relationships. During our Wednesday Bible study time, the pastor is leading a discussion of how to practically apply the principles of Proverbs. Each week participants will receive a picture with symbols representing these principles, and a study outline with Scripture references to review. Join us! You'll be glad you did!
