A Thought for Today About Easter Meaning

by
Dr. Johnny R. Almond

“My question – which at the age of fifty brought me to the verge of suicide – was the simplest of questions, lying in the soul of every man . . . a question without an answer to which one cannot live.

It was: What will come of my whole life? Why should I wish for anything, or do anything?
It can also be expressed thus: Is there any meaning in my life that the inevitable death awaiting me does not destroy?

- Leo Tolstoy, in A Confession

Trusting in Jesus Christ ... we can cope with chaos.
Believing in the resurrection ... we can face harsh reality.
Listening to God's bright melody of promise ... we have hope.
Seeing with heart eyes ... we look beyond time to heaven on earth.
Walking day by day with the living Lord ... we can sing and dance for joy.
Serving the King of kings who conquered evil ... we can live with purpose.
Taking the Shepherd's hand ... we travel through death's shadows to paradise.

“To me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.”
(Philippians 1:21 ESV)
