A Thought for Today About Independence Day

by
Dr. Johnny R. Almond

“Under the eternal urge of freedom we became an independent Nation.”
- Calvin Coolidge

The Creator who made humankind and placed His image on each person frees trusting souls to walk with dignity.

The Lord who liberated Israelites from Egyptian bondage frees repentant souls to soar with exhilaration.

The Savior who died for the sins of the entire world unshackles hearts oppressed by the evil one.

The Master who sets us free by His unchanging truth keeps us free by His unlimited power.

The Friend of sinners who removes selfish handcuffs teaches our hands to serve others.

The God who blessed America’s cause is still able to forge America’s character.

May we never declare our independence from “the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation!”

May we who believe keep in mind our dual citizenship – and always keep Christ before Caesar.

“For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

For you were called to freedom. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.”
