A Thought for Today about Repentance

by
Dr. Johnny R. Almond

“Right actions for the future are the best apologies for wrong ones in the past.”
- Tryon Edwards

Repentance is only genuine when we are dead serious about quitting sin.

Faith is only possible when we are sincere about surrendering our heart to Christ.

Feeling sorry for wrongdoing is not transformative if it only means sorrow for getting caught.

Regrets are futile, changing nothing we did . . . repentance is fervent, changing our lives for the better.

“Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more.”
(John 8:11 ESV)
