A Thought for Today About Seeking God

by
Dr. Johnny R. Almond

“Rose early to seek God and found Him whom my soul loveth. Who would not rise early to meet such company?”

- written by Scottish clergyman Robert Murray McCheyne in his journal, February 23rd 1834

We get up early when we're excited by adventure of the day ahead.
What could thrill our soul more than the joy of His Presence?

We get up early when we need to talk things over with a friend.
Who could be a better listener than our Greatest Friend?

We get up early when we're concerned about a problem.
Who could guide us better than the Prince of Peace?

We talk with God in the morning to begin the day right.
Who could find a better way to start than praying?

“Give ear to my words, O LORD; consider my groaning.
Give attention to the sound of my cry, my King and my God, for to you do I pray.
O LORD, in the morning you hear my voice;
in the morning I direct my prayer to you and watch.”

(Psalm 5:1-3 ESV)
