A Thought for Today About passion

by
Dr. Johnny R. Almond

"I felt my heart strangely warmed..."

- John Wesley, founder of Methodism
Written in his journal after his conversion
Aldersgate Chapel, London
May 24th 1738

Have we felt our heart strangely warmed?
Is the flame of faith still burning brightly?
Does our life shine in a blaze of belief?
Do embers of expectation still glow?

Or has our love for Jesus Christ grown cold?
Is faith we once thought inextinguishable flickering?
Is our belief weakening in winds of the world's derision?
Does the fire burning in our heart melt the lead in our feet?
Is our hope in the future about to die out in creeping despair?
Would we dare pray like Amy Carmichael, missionary to India ...
"Let me not sink to be a clod; Make me Thy fuel, Flame of God" ?

"Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love."
[Ephesians 6:24 TCNT]
