A Thought for Today About purpose

“Epitaph for Homo sapiens:
In Loving Memory of People (4,500,000 B.C. – A.D. 2000)
They Were Better Than They Knew.
They Never Found Out What They Were Doing Here.”
- James Morrow

To be better than we are naturally, we must surrender to God and be changed supernaturally.
To discover what we are here after, we must consider life’s repercussions in the hereafter.

There must be a better way than to “live fast, die young, and leave a beautiful memory.”
The noblest use of life ... and the highest hope beyond death ... is to glorify God.

Have YOU found out what you are supposed to be doing on planet earth?

“To me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.”
(Philippians 1:21 ESV)
